1940 ORIOLE

ALMA MATER

Near the mountain's silent splendor
And the Hudson wide,
Nobly stands our Alma Mater
Filling us with pride.

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central;
Fight to bring her fame;
Conquer all who dare to challenge;
Glorify her name.

Though we pass outside her portals
When our days are through,
Orange and black, her grand old colors,
We will honor you.

Sing the praise of Bethlehem Central;
Fight to bring her fame;
Conquer all who dare to challenge;
Glorify her name.

PREFACE

In the dusty archives of Central School District No. 6 we run across mention of a year book created in '31. The diabolical idea has grown apace with the times and our present day production is the result.

This year we started off great. Our conception of the "Oriole" was that it should keep pace with world progress. It was decided that the pictures of the girls with the drapes were too formal. How about a sweater? We encountered great opposition to this, but through use of diplomacy we were able to gain control of the situation. The next step was to discard our old style cover for a new and different one. We argued and fought, and finally, by the end of February, we were able to decide on our new cover.

We would have the "Oriole" out on May 1. Everything pointed to this until we began taking group pictures. For an unknown reason we were unable to take all the necessary groups at one time. This was our big mistake. Due to bad weather, it was necessary for us to keep postponing our "takes." Time grew short. February, with its snow, passed. March shot into eternity, and still there were no pictures.

During this time, however, the "Oriole" staff wasn't dormant. At our weekly conferences we discussed various topics, made plans, planned and put on a dance, and, in short, accomplished much. About this time we decided to discard the old style of department page and to incorporate one more modern. Peg King conceived the idea of the ring picture for the Senior feature page, and then the rest came naturally.

As Spring approached with April, we considered taking our remaining group pictures. The schedule was made; the weather was bad; we postponed again. However, undaunted, we bravely set another date. We had a blizzard that day and again we were "up the creek." Finally, through some quirk of fate, all the groups were taken as April faded into oblivion.

While this was going on, we were making appeals for write-ups. The "humor" was being created by Marion Snook and Jean Weaver. Ruth Gillett and Bob Dysinger were making write-ups. Rich Young was collecting subscriptions. Howie Bainer was squeezing money out of the classes and clubs. Adelaide Saint was working on the advertising and Marion Willard was arbitrator for our disputes with the printer and photographer.

Finally, the dummy was completed—pictures and copy were sent to the printer. There followed an anxious wait; the proof was corrected; the presses were locked up; and on a glorious June day our "Oriole" arrived. Our hopes and plans were realized and our book was a success.

As editor, I want to thank the members of the "Oriole" staff and Miss Skevington for assisting as they did. Without their help the "Oriole" couldn't have been a success. I hope you enjoy the 1940 "Oriole", and that it affords you much pleasure now and as you look back on it in the future.

THE GRADUATING CLASS DEDICATES THIS 1940 ORIOLE, IN TOKEN OF THANKS TO OUR CONSTANT FRIEND AND ADVISER

MOUNTAINS

WHAT DO YOU COLLECT? My hobby is mountains. Not the actual towering masses of earth and rock that pierce the sky and give grandeur to Nature's landscapes, but mountains climbed, or, like Everest, mountains seen from afar.

Sharing the vicissitudes of the staff that has produced this 1940 "Oriole" has brought to mind a number of the rare specimens in my museum of mountain memories.

Following the trail of the former staffs, we expected to profit much from their experience, and began the ascent with the hope of an almost effortless climb, like my visit to Pike's Peak by high-powered automobile; but, as on that August day in Colorado we were met by a blinding snow storm, so the "Oriole" staff ran into many an unforeseen difficulty.

It was hard going, presenting unexpected problems, and calling for courage and perseverance and some innovations, but the splendid results have justified the toil and labor, even as the magnificent sunrise over the Pacific rewarded my strenuous, exhausting climb up the steep cinder trail to the summit of Fujiyama; for now I remember, not the stress and strain of the ascent, but the glorious view from the cratered crown of Japan's sacred mountain.

We faced some testing problems and tempting risks that might have resulted in disaster, but we solved the ones and avoided the others. Thus we escaped the tragedy that "might have been," more successfully than those misguided pilgrims of West China who year by year climb their sacred Mount Omei, and seeing "Buddha's Glory" (their own shadows projected on the clouds in the valley below) jump into the arms of their god only to be dashed to death on the rocks.

We make no claim to having attained perfection. We have not scaled the dazzling heights of that Mount Everest. We have, however, glimpsed them. While we must rest content to view them from a lower altitude, as I cherish the memory of the gleaming, snow-capped Everest of the Himalayas, one hundred and three miles away from where I stood on Tiger Hill, near Darjeeling, India, we greet those who come after us with the inspiring, though strange device—"EXCELSIOR."

CLASS WILL

We, the Graduating Class of 1940, having much of which to dispose and trusting ourselves to be generous of heart, do hereby state, declare, and present, to whom it may concern, this our Last Will and Testament.

To Bob Simon, "Matty" Knapp hereby leaves his ability to burn up the track. May he use it to the best advantage.

Peggy King leaves her standing as stylist to Dorothy Spencer.

To Ruth Killough, Ruth Gillett bequeaths her art of eternal giggling.

Marion Snook leaves her "peaches and cream" complexion to Virginia Neal.

To Miss Skevington, we leave sixth period study hall in the cafeteria knowing that she will appreciate it to the utmost degree.

Vivian Coonley and Bill McIntosh bequeath their "romance" to June Nodine and "Brud" Boutelle.

To Connie Conroe, Adelaide Saint leaves her baton for leading the orchestra.

To each of the teachers, we leave a mechanical hand to pull the students in out of the halls.

Mollie Kested bequeaths to Marjorie Hicks a series of headaches (well used) caused by the bright (?) "Star."

To puzzle Miss Newell, Boynton and Guy Leonard leave Elizabeth and Katherine Wagner.

To future basketball teams, the Senior girls leave their monopoly on the inter-class trophy.

We leave a copy of Emily Post's book of etiquette to the student body for bettering itself in assemblies.

Jack De Ronde, our prize winner, leaves his ability to speak to Frank Howd.

To Ruth Jensen, Mary Packman gladly gives a few excess inches from her height.

Elsie Johnson and Frances Livingston, two of our Voorheesville girls, bequeath their sistership to Betty Martin and Elaine Sanefski.

We, the Seniors, leave our ability to "get by."

Duly signed and sealed this Day of our Lord,
March 1, 1940.

CLASS PROPHESY

SUDDENLY WITHOUT ANY WARNING—I couldn't tell whether I was in the realm of reality or fancy—I was in a sleek super streamlined plane, a 1950 model, which was just landing at the new Delmar Airport, a recent W. P. A. project, which furnished our town with one of the best small town airports in the U. S.

I had been away from Delmar for five years with Admiral Byrd's XVI Expedition. I had helped him with the construction of a railroad to the newly discovered Radium mines in Antarctica.

As I stepped off the plane, I was confronted by the beautiful hostess, Helen Frink. Just as I was about to ask her to have lunch with me, a uniformed pilot, whom I recognized as Hartzell, came running out of a building labeled Arrow Airlines. Inside I saw Viking Holmberg behind the purser's desk with Ruth Ostrander and Mary Hoffman acting as secretaries. Then as I walked through the hall, I noticed on the office doors such names as: James Ottman, President, and James Mott, Vice President in charge of operations. In his office I saw Elizabeth Kling, Jean Terwilliger, Jane Stodart, and Evelyn Ames typing reports for this large airline.

As I walked on into the waiting room, I met Margaret King and Adelaide Saint hurrying to catch a plane for New York, where they were famous models.

Outside, I stepped into a cab bearing the names: Adams and Butler, quarter cab. Driving through the industrial section, I caught glimpses of such names as: Fromma and Fuchs Wrecking Company, Glover and Yanz Construction Company. Ahead, over a large factory, stood a Neon sign which said, "Bite test after Bite test proves our paper best"—Matthew Knapp, President. While the cab stopped for a traffic light, Richmond Young and Frank Stapf marched across the street carrying banners proclaiming, "Murray for Mayor—The People's Choice." Across the street in front of a building boasting the names Leonard, Leonard, Leonard and Dysinger, Attornies at Law, stood Ed Hausburg and Ralph Aiken just talking. My cab moved on and drove past one of Delmar's chain theaters owned and operated by Roy Playford. It was featuring a one day appearance of Jim Strope's orchestra with William Hartnett at the Drums and a news reel showing the feats of Joe Dabravalskas in the 1950 World's Series.

Since the meter was running higher and higher, I decided to get out and look over the old town "a pied." Soon after starting my jaunt, I discovered a building bearing the name The Delmar Times. Suddenly someone flashed out of the door. It was Mollie Kested going after a scoop.

Inside I found Ruth Gillet and Peg Phillips in charge of the Personnel Department. Sitting back in his cane bottom swivel chair was L. B. Prince, Editor in Chief conferring with Joan MacDonald, head of the Accounting Department. In the far corner sat Marion Snook preparing her daily column for the Society Page. Then, as I walked out into the main office, I was greeted by the hub bub that can be found only in a newspaper office. Amidst this confusion I recognized Ann Hannaway, Mabel Sipperly, Vivian Coonley, Lois Jones,

Kathleen Hourigan, Phyllis Henry, and Esther Vanderbilt. In the printing room I saw Willis McIntosh, Ed Winnie, Trafford Tibbits and George Stutsrim, all working on the presses.

Just as I was about to enter the New Hospital, I recognized John Grim, head of the Conservation Department, talking to Art Prue, newly appointed Ambassador to Afghanistan, accompanied by his private secretary Arlene Slauson. Inside I was met by four white clad figures, namely: Mabel Salisbury, Irma Secor, Elsie Johnson, and Frances Livingston; while behind the registration desk I recognized Barbara Hansen. Typing for her was Agnes Ricci. On my way out I met Marion Willard, who was now head dietician.

Since I had been away so long, I decided that I should go back to my old "Alma Mater." Upon arriving at the school, I noticed it had changed in many ways. It was now almost twice as large and had recently been remodeled. Soon after I entered I was met by Jack DeRonde, who was now a teacher, and on the card on the door of the Boy's Gym I saw "Albert Potter, Head Coach." I could even hear Albie's voice telling some youngster to "Pass and Cut." Across the hall in the Girl's Gym Jean Weaver, with the aid of her assistant, Mary Packman, was instructing wide-eyed little girls how to wield a hockey stick. In the Industrial Art section Allen Fales was explaining how to use a pair of calipers, and in the Homemaking Room, Betsy Cady was demonstrating how to make a sure-to-rise cake. On the second floor Betty Barker was teaching the fine points in Spanish diction.

Then there was a banging of doors and I heard my father's voice saying, "Get out of the car and go to bed, I've got to go to work." You see, it was just the morning after our "Senior Ball" and I had had a bad dream.

TO MY VALENTINE

Cupid is a mathematician;
With each shining little dart
He is sure to find the locus
Of a loving Freshman's heart.

Though he solve for her the problem
Of the powers, both low and high,
Secant ever quite approach them
In the planes on which they lie.

Since the rule has no exception,
In this little school of love,
I have learned sum of the lessons
Of the powers that move above.

And I have an inclination
To be tangent, dear to thee,
For my love has but one limit
Which is infinity.

So, whenever we're adjacent
I am hoping for sum sine,
Which will prove that thou dost love me
As I love my Valentine.

Other Classes

CLASS OF '41

THE YEAR 1939-40 viewed in retrospect appears to the Junior Class to have been one successful event after another. First, there was the card party. Then shortly after mid-year exams we held a dance. This Spring we had an epidemic of cake sales which really boosted our treasury and made it possible for us to close the year's social calendar with an elaborate Junior Prom.

Our officers were:

THOMAS BARKER . . . . . President
DONALD MCGUIRK . . . . . Vice-President
JANE SNYDER . . . . . Secretary
EDNA ADLER . . . . . Treasurer
RICHARD BETTS . . . . . Student Council Representative

CLASS OF '42

THE CLASS OF 1942 had a very successful year.

This year's officers have been:

SCOTTY ROWE ..... President
RUTH HAFLEY ..... Vice-President
EVA SAINT ..... Secretary
ROGER FRYER ..... Treasurer
JACK ADAMS ..... Student Council Representative

CLASS OF '43

We, the Freshmen Class, feel that this year of 1940 has been a very successful one for us. Among our activities we have numbered a dance, two hay-rides, and a class party. We have been well represented at basketball games and other activities for the support of the school.

Lawrence Smith . . . . . Vice-President
Ruth Oliver . . . . . Secretary
John Allen . . . . . Treasurer
William Snyder . . . . . Student Council Representative

CLASS OF '44

RECOVERING FROM the slow start of last year, we have actively supported the school activities.

Our officers are:

JAMES PARKS . . . . . President
JANE ATWOOD . . . . . Vice-President
MARGUERITE SAULISBURY . . . . . Secretary
THURBY PATTERSON . . . . . Treasurer

CLASS HISTORY

THE TIME HAS COME WHEN THE SENIOR CLASS must pause to take stock. It would be a sign of gross conceit to try to show the importance of 1940 by enumerating all its accomplishments and honors. 1940 is not conceited because of these achievements but only takes proper pride in them. The future holds—what? The past—well, let us take a birdseye glance at the last four years of the illustrious class of 1940.

FRESHMAN YEAR (Will we ever forget it?)—meek and mild—breathless eagerness—big ideas—hard study—sports—new friendships—Freshman Dance (long dresses!)

SOPHOMORE YEAR (Now we are somebody!)—more grown-up—quite sophisticated (we thought!)—need for money-answer, Benefit Movie—Sophomore Hop (music, soft lights, fun!)

JUNIOR YEAR (Important people now)—self-confidence—inititiative—leadership in athletics—going steady—Benefit Card Party, an original idea (big success!)—Our Circus—noise, balloons, clever stunts—"Penny an Inch Dance (great rush for short girls)—Junior Prom (magnificent, thrilling!) through the assistance of Mr. Hall.

SENIOR YEAR (Looking ahead now)—poise—assurance—college catalogues—plans—Jitterbug craze—Senior Play (smash hit!)—Card Party— Oriole Dance—cramming—examinations—graduation—excitement—tears—farewells.

SO HERE'S TO YOU 1940! We will carry into the future days happy memories of the joys and sorrows, the fun and friendships of these high school years. Also, with loving gratitude we will remember the patience, loyalty and help of our teachers.

"Hold your cup
Joy will fill it
Steady
Be ready
Good Luck." (Van Dyke)

A Few Illustrious Seniors —

— and to think that he is President
of the Student Council!

LAUGHTER IS FATTENING

Betty Barker: My ancestors came over on the Mayflower.
Harry Paige: It's lucky they did. The immigration laws are a little more strict now.

Jim Strope: Marion, apple of my eye, I would do anything for you: swim the Atlantic, go through fire and hell, and face the most terrible hurricane for your sake. And, by the way, I'll be down tonight if it doesn't rain too hard.

Perry Cox: I dreamed I died last night.
Neil Henry: What woke you up?
Perry: The heat.

Early to bed, early to rise, your girl goes out with other guys.
(Dedicated to the track team)

Tommie Barker: Say Barb, how much homework do you do?
Barbara Greenhalgh: Oh, an hour per.
Tommie: Per what?
Barbara: Perhaps.

Miss Newell: This is the fifth time that you've been tardy this week. Have you anything to say for yourself?
Willis Vogel: Yes, I'm glad today is Friday.

Miss Skevington: Tomorrow we shall take the life of Shakespeare.
Richmond Young: What shall we bring, guns or knives?

Bill Oliver: Censored.
Johnny Murray: Censored.
Billie Oliver: Censored.
Johnny: Censored.

His mother wrote to him at college, and he fainted when he read these words: "And please, dear, I do wish you would'nt shoot those little craps. They love life as much as you do."

A college freshman was swinging down Main Street in a mid-Western college town when he chanced upon a journeying hobo.

"Hey buddy," said the hobo. "Do you have the price of a cup of java?"

"Not quite," replied the freshman, "But I'll get along all right."

Political boss "Honest" John Murray walked into his barber shop wherein were gathered some of the local voters. One of them approached John and whined. "That cigar you gave me yesterday tasted like an old rope."

To which John answered, "Well, just skip it."

BOYS' INTRAMURALS

THIS YEAR the boys' intramurals inaugurated a new system. It is this: to help Coach along, Al Potter was appointed manager of the intramurals. He had six assistant managers who each supervised certain sports.

The activities this year included additions over last year, among which were horseshoes, box hockey, table polo, handball, and others.

The hard fought double round of basketball was won by Rich Young's team in the major division and by Dick Simon's in the minor.

The soccer winners were Eddie Bacher's team in the major ,and Chet Oliver's in the minor.

The touch-football winners of last Fall are also Eddie Bacher's team in the major division and Chet Oliver's in the minor. The leading event in this Spring's intramural program will be the annual softball league.

GIRLS' INTRAMURALS

HOCKEY: The champions of the interclass teams were the Seniors, whose captain was Mollie Kested. It rained too much to schedule many games.

BASKETBALL: In the Junior High league Jean Hartzell's team was the champion and will have its name engraved on the trophy. The Senior High minor champions were the Cyclones. The captain was Vivian Coonley. For the third consecutive year the Class of 1940 won the interclass championship and will receive the trophy. We're proud of our record. No captain was elected.

SOFTBALL: Mary Packman is the captain and we're sure to have a good team as always.

TENNIS: Peggy Phillips was the winner of the Fall tournament. A new triangle system is being worked out for this year. Betty Barker is the captain.

BADMINTON: For the last two years badminton has become a very popular sport here. Mollie Kested, captain for the second year, is making it better than ever.

ARCHERY: This sport is assuming increased popularity with us. Jean Paige was elected captain.

VARSITY GOLF

THE VARSITY GOLF SQUAD this year includes four letter men from last season: Johnny Murray, Jack Ertel, Roy McCormick, and Ed Hausburg. As usual the Normanside Country Club will be used for our home matches. Matches are now scheduled with Roesselville and Albany High, with tentative matches with Vincentian and Milne under discussion.

Coach McFarland is looking forward to a successful season this year with the old squad and the new additions of Swarthout and Van Zandt.

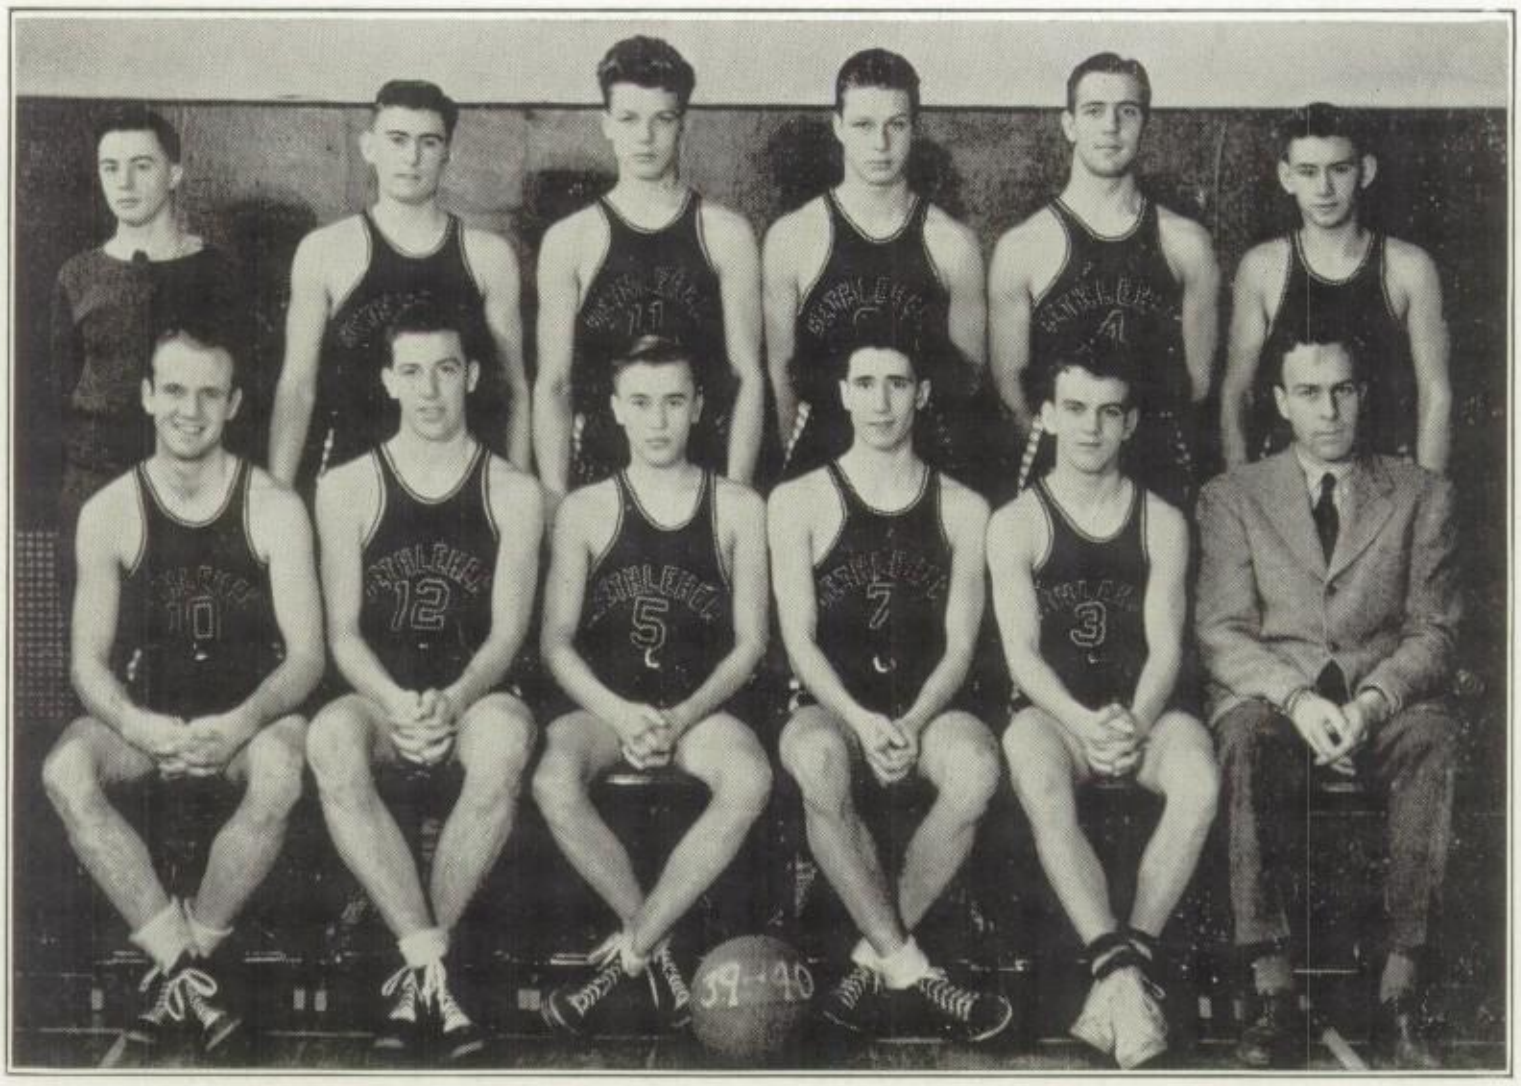
CROSS COUNTRY

LAST FALL a new sport was inaugurated here at Bethlehem Central. Under the leadership of Coach Butterfield, we got together our first varsity cross country team.

The squad was Matty Knapp, Johnny Grim, Bob Simons, Bill Moak, Art Banker, Dick Betts, Bud Moore, and Howie Bainer.

The boys participated in three meets, one with Nott Terrace High of Schenectady (away), one with Mont Pleasant High of Schenectady (here), and the other at the Schenectady Interscholastic Cross Country Championship Meet.

Although we won no meets, we got some valuable experience, and can look forward to much better seasons in the future.



VARSITY BASKETBALL

THIS YEAR'S BASKETBALL season turned out very well, considering that we had almost no members of last year's squad back again (8 won, 5 lost).

The squad consisted of Jack Adams, Don McGuirk, Jack Van Zandt, Jim Strope, Art Prue, Dick Lynch, Rich Young, Roger Fryer, Harry Swarthout, Howie Bainer, Frank Stapf, and Bob Simon (manager).

Adams was high scorer with 98 points, McGuirk, second with 80 points, and Van Zandt, third with 49.

This year's results are:

Dec.	1	B. C. H. S.	vs	Coeymans . . . 29-15
Dec.	2	"	"	Roesselville . . 35-19
Dec.	9	"	"	Greenville . . . 33-20
Dec.	15	"	"	Rensselaer . . . (Forfeited to us)
Dec.	20	"	"	Castleton 55-16
Jan.	6	"	"	Milne 27-28
Jan.	13	"	"	Schuyler 24-37
Jan.	20	"	"	Cobleskill 33-23
Jan.	26	"	"	Castleton 37-10
Feb.	9	"	"	Schuyler 17-44
Feb.	27	"	"	Greenville . . . 34-19
Feb.	24	"	"	Rennselaer . . . 25-37
Mar.	1	"	"	Milne 18-31

Art Prue was elected honorary captain of this year's team, and Don McGuirk captain of next year's team.

GIRLS' BASKETBALL

THE GIRLS' BASKETBALL team turned out to be exceptional this year. Made up mostly of seniors who had been playing together for four years, it showed fine teamwork and good sportsmanship.

More games were scheduled this year than previously, and we were able to defeat every team played.

We attended two playdays, one at Cobleskill and the other at Milne. Other games were scheduled with Milne, Cobleskill, and Mt. Pleasant.

For the second consecutive year Jean Weaver was our captain. Barbara Hansen was our manager.

TRACK

We expect a very good track season this year with the following men left from last year: Jim Strope (100 and 220), Clint Hartzell (100 and 220), Bill Moak (440), Matty Knapp (half mile), Viking Holmberg (mile), Johnny Grim (pole vault), Don McGuirk (pole vault), Jack Van Zandt (hurdles), and Dick Lynch (weights). Coach also expects a number of Freshmen and Sophomores out this year as well as some of last year's non-letter men.

Matty Knapp and Clint Hartzell are this year's co-captains, and with these two veterans at the head we should feel quite confident. (This is Matty's fourth year as a varsity track man, by the way!)

Last year we lost only one meet, and that to C. B. A. We also won the Central Hudson Championship last year. Here is our coming schedule:

May 4, Hudson, Home
May 16, Ravena, Home
May 23, Vincentian, Home
May 28, C. B. A., Home
June 8, (The Sectionals), Away
May 9, (Tentative Date), La Salle

GIRLS' HOCKEY

MOST IMPORTANT of the hockey season events were the matches of the Northeastern Field Hockey Association held on our fields during November. Over two hundred and fifty people participated in these.

Every member of our hockey team helped in some way to make it a grand success. Heading the committees were Jean Weaver, registration; Mary Packman, tickets; Barbara Hansen, housing; and Mollie Kested, refreshments.

Following the precedents of the last three years, our team won the home game with Milne, and lost the game played on their field.

Our only other game, one with Mount Pleasant, we won.

The team was captained by Ruth Gillett, managed by Barbara Hansen, and coached by Miss Kinney.

TENNIS

LAST YEAR'S TENNIS TEAM was undefeated during the whole season; therefore this is one sport in which we can't hope to make a better showing this year. We were the winners, of the Central Hudson Valley League for which we received the cup.

Although this year we have but three letter men, Harry Paige, Renny Crain, and Buster Jones, the outlook is fairly good.

This year's schedule, although not completed as yet, will probably include matches with Albany High, Vincentian, C. B. A., Hudson, Ravena, and Rensselaer.

CHEER LEADERS

THIS YEAR'S cheerleading squad started off with a "bang" with new suits. The varsity squad consisted of five senior girls and a sophomore boy. Arlene Slauson captained the varsity squad with Adelaide Saint, Jean Weaver, Betty Barker, Marian Snook and LeRoy Coak in support. The varsity song leader was Margie Schaffner.

VARSITY SOCCER

OUR SQUAD, which contained nine letter men was composed of the following: Al Potter (captain), Jack Adams, Don McGuirk, Jonny Murray, Scotty Rowe, Buster Jones, Tom Ottman, Jack Van Zandt, Rich Young, Frank Stapf, Jim Strope, Harry Swarthout, Dick Lynch, Clint Hartzell, Al Raymond, and Brud Boutelle (manager).

This last was a successful season, to say the least, we having won four, tied one, and lost one. We took two games from Troy High School, won one and tied one with Greenville High School, and won one and lost one with Berne-Knox High School.

Our forward line this past year was undoubtedly a very great factor in our having such a good record. Certainly Al Potter, Adams, McGuirk, Murray, Rowe, Raymond, Jones, and Van Zandt deserve praise here for a job on this line.

We can hopefully look forward to a great season next year with many of this great squad back again.

DEPUTY CLUB

This year the Deputy Club was organized in a new way. Deputy representatives were elected from each class to the Inner Council, which acted as the governing body for the girls' athletics as well as for the deputies.

During the year we sponsored several successful tea dances and roller skating parties and helped with the Northeastern Hockey Tournament. We observed a Deputy Week in February by which we hoped to set a precedent.

The members of the Inner Council are:

SENIORS

Betty Barker, Captain
Ruth Gillett, Secretary
Mollie Kested, Treasurer
Peggy Phillips
Barbara Hansen

JUNIORS

Vesta Willard, Ass't Captain

VARSITY CLUB

THE VARSITY CLUB administered by its very capable adviser Coach Solon Butterfield, consists of boys who have earned a letter in a school sport. This year the Varsity Club contributed to the success of the North East Sectional Hockey Tournament by its very adequate and enjoyable Hot Dog Stand. A second accomplishment was the Inter-Class Basketball Tournament which proved to be a tremendous success.

The Varsity Club boasts of the fact that this year's campaign not only benefited the members of the club, but, was also an additional feature for non-members.

GIRLS' HI-Y

Under the guidance of Miss Lawrence, the Girls' Hi-Y has successfully ended its fourth consecutive year as an organization in this school.

During the year several parties were given, including a Christmas party. A tea dance and a raffle were also given. At Christmas time the club made up baskets for needy families.

Although it will lose several valuable members through graduation, the Hi-Y is looking forward to another successful year in 1940-41.

Officers

JOAN MACDONALD . . . . . President

BASEBALL

WE ARE LOOKING FORWARD to a good season this year in baseball, with the following letter men returning: Joe Dabravalskas, Bud Moore, Jim Mott, Harry Swarthout, Al Cornes, and Rich Young. Mr. Hritz also reports about thirty candidates who have appeared so far. With a fair season last year, and with our veterans more experienced than at that time, surely we should make good progress.

This year's schedule is:

April 26, Altamont, Home
April 30, Averille Park, Away
May 3, Roessleville, Home
May 4, Hudson, Home
May 7, Castleton, Away
May 10, Milne, Home
May 14, Altamont, Away
May 17, Castleton, Home
May 21, Roessleville, Away
May 24, Averille Park, Home
May 28, Milne, Away
June 3, Rensselaer, Away

BOWLING TEAM

THE VARSITY BOWLING team for the third successive year finished in a close second place for the Central Hudson Valley League Championship.

This year's keglers were: Harry Swarthout—captain, Jack Van Zandt, Edwin Bacher, William Oliver, Albert Potter.

Van Zandt crashed the maple for Individual High Single in the C. H. V. L. and received a gold bowling ball. Bethlehem finished seventh in a high school tournament of 32 Class A and B teams at the close of the season.

LIBRARY CLUB

DURING THIS, the second year of the Library Club, we have done research work concerning suitable books for the Junior High School. We have visited the Argus Printing Company and the New York State Library. Book Week was observed by various members of the club making posters and writing book reviews. We also sponsored a movie which was financially a great success.

FAITH SNOW ..... President
ANASTASIA GAGNER ..... Vice-President
CAROL MORRISON ..... Secretary-Treasurer

SCIENCE CLUB

THE SCIENCE CLUB under the supervision of Mr. Edsall had a full schedule of programs this year, all members participating. Some of the programs were experiments in science, science quizzes, and microscope work. Our most enjoyed experiment was by Mr. Edsall with hydrogen gas.

This year the officers were:

DORIS TIEDEMAN ..... President
CLARENCE SMITH ..... Vice President
OWEN YOUNG ..... Secretary
MILDRED LUCE ..... Treasurer

L. X. I. CLUB

AGAIN THIS YEAR, under the capable leadership of Miss Gage, the LXI girls have come through with spirits high.

Many activities were accomplished, the most recent of which was the initiation of Junior members, for the purpose of continuing the club next semester.

Marjorie Thomas, one of our most prominent members and our secretary, was absent the day the picture was taken.

IRMA SECOR . . . . . President
MARJORIE THOMAS . . . . . Secretary

FUTURE FARMERS

THE SCHOOL CHAPTER of the Future Farmers has had another successful year.

This year the members participated in the World Poultry Congress in Cleveland, where they received the top honors. The Albany Crop Show and the New York State Horticultural Society at Kingston saw members of our chapter in the prize winner's row. At the latter event Jack DeRonde won the speaking contest, and John Grim took first place in the Dairyman's League Essay Contest.

All these events prove that our organization is one of the most active groups in the school.

This year's officers are:

J. STUART GRIM ..... President
JACK DERONDE ..... Vice-President
JOHN W. HEIM ..... Secretary
WARREN MEAD ..... Treasurer
RUSSELL VADNEY ..... Reporter

STUDENT COUNCIL

As in former years the Student Council has supported many of the school activities. In addition, this year, plans have been formulated for a new traffic court and honorary society.

With the aid of Mr. Bookhout and Mr. Hritz, the following officers guided the Council.

Arthur Prue ..... President
Matthew Knapp ..... Vice-President
Jean Weaver ..... Secretary
Lennox Prince ..... Treasurer

Through the efforts of this year's Council, beginning next year the Student Council will be a larger and more representative group.

THE BETHLEHEM STAR

The "Bethlehem Star" under the able direction of Miss Skevington and Mollie Kested has risen to great heights this year. The staff has attempted to make the "Star" more of a newspaper than a magazine as it has been in previous years.

They sent seven delegates to the E. S. S. P. A. in Syracuse last November. At that convention they learned a great deal. The "Star" has had many special features, one of which was the personal interview of our editor with Jeanette MacDonald, the famous star of stage and screen.

ORCHESTRA

THE BETHLEHEM CENTRAL ORCHESTRA can point to this year as its finest. Under the direction of Mr. Truitt the organization has worked out an excellent style of playing.

The Orchestra played for the Christmas Concert, the Festival at Hudson, our Festival here in Bethlehem Central, and assumed great responsibility in playing for the Operetta.

Adelaide Saint proved an extremely talented student director in the Christmas Concert and at other times during the course of the year. Joyce Manley and Morgan Wilkes are the indispensable accompanists. The final appearance of the Orchestra for the year was for Commencement. Lois Piper was one soloist for the Christmas concert and gave a fine example of playing.

The members of the Orchestra are looking forward to playing again next year.

GLEE CLUB

THE GLEE CLUB has participated in many activities this year. They accompanied the orchestra to Hudson and also sang at the festival at our Alma Mater. Schools participating in the latter event were: Ravena, Berne-Knox, Coeymans, and Castleton. The most outstanding event of the year was the operetta in which they took part. Next year they expect to enter the music contests held at Hudson.

The officers are:

JUNE NODINE ..... President
IRMA PINNEY ..... Treasurer
CONNIE CONROE ..... Secretary

JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS

THE JUNIOR HIGH CHORUS under the direction of Mr. Truitt has done exceptionally fine work this year. They have not only become more skilled but they have grown in number.

They accompanied the Orchestra and Glee Club to the festival at Hudson where they presented an excellent program in conjunction with the other groups. The most important event was their participation in the Operetta.

The officers are:

BARBARA CROCKER . . . . . President
JOAN GILBERT . . . . . Vice-President

SENIOR DRAMATICS CLUB

THE SENIOR DRAMATICS CLUB has had a very successful year. At the meetings we discussed dramatic technique and at one meeting Mrs. Gibbs gave some readings. Miss Skevington has been sponsor and has directed the four plays which were produced. Two of these plays; "Who Gets the Car Tonight?" and "The Great Allowance Battle" concerned the same family and were given by different groups in each play. They were given at assembly and were judged by applause, the former won. A Christmas play was presented and also a three act mystery-comedy, "Danger in the Desert." All these productions were enjoyed by all in attendance. By participation on various committees, each member aids in the production and thereby gains experience in all phases of play production.

Officers:

NORMAN KNISLEY ..... President
DEANNE PHILLIPS ..... Vice-President
FRANCES KEELAN ..... Secretary
WILLIS VOGEL ..... Treasurer

Due to the extended illness of Norman Knisley, Deanne Phillips has been acting president of the club.
